Attendance Policy

Students taking classes once a week do not have allowable absences. Under certain circumstances such as natural disaster or out of control situations, only one absence can be made up depending on the teacher's availability or credit will be extended to the next session*.

* Absence beyond one will not be re-credited or compensated without special consideration determined by JPLI administration office.

Reward Points Program

- Consistency – Students who are consistently registered with good performance (grade point 90+) at JPLI’s classes will be considered for educational credit.
- Referral – Students or parents who refer JPLI’s program to talented friends or family members who are non-current students can get rewards ($40 toward tuition credit) after the referee’s successful attendance at the program.
