

ESL Teacher Position

JP Language Institute

68 S Service Road, Suite 100, Melville New York 11747

Website: www.jppli.org | E-mail: hr@jppli.org

We are an established business/language training institution in Long Island and Manhattan, New York city. Most of our students are adult learners..

We are currently accepting resumes of English teachers to teach the ESL courses:

Location: Suffolk County, Nassau County in Long Island New York

Category: Faculty - Liberal Arts - English as Second Language

Posted date: August 12, 2014

Application Due: September 9th, 2015

Type: Instructor

Salary: Part – time for starters, full time is possible depending on evaluation.

Starting pay: $16 up / per hour base on experiences

EDUCATION/ EXPERIENCE:

Native English speaker with bachelor degree in Liberal Arts. Master's Degree in Linguistics or TESOL with teaching experience is preferred.

Experience in teaching ESL Reading Writing Listening and Speaking at different proficiency levels, TOEFL, and Academic Skills; ability to relate well to students and work effectively with colleagues.

QUALIFICATIONS:

1.This position requires the ability to work with adults from varied cultures at the developmental level, excellent writing skills, and internet use, Microsoft Word and Excel in order to develop worksheets and test for classroom use and track Grades. The successful candidate must have high verbal ability, team player attitude. Management reserves the right to change the above duties and responsibilities at any time.

2. Have two documents, ESOL Certificate and a teacher's license from the NYS Education Department. You are welcome to interview first, and we will help qualified candidates with the application process. You may teach as soon as the classes start in fall 2014 and / or spring 2015. Preference is given to already certified and licensed teachers.

APPLY:

Please email your resume, cover letter, three references at Contact: hr@jppli.org

Or you can complete online at <http://www.jppli.org/employment-application-form.html>